CHARTER.

J. B. SMITH, Grand Master,
JOHN CARSON, D. Grand Master,
JOHN MCCREE, S. Grand Warden,
EDWARD FOX, J. Grand Warden.

To all whom it may concern:

The GRAND LODGE of the most ancient and honorable Fraternity of Free and accepted Masons (according to the Old Constitution, revised by his Royal Highness Prince Edwin at York, in the Kingdom of England, in the year of the Christian æra, Nine hundred Twenty and Six, and in the Year of Masonry, Four Thousand, Nine Hundred Twenty and Six), in ample Form assembled at Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, SEND GREETING.

the Right Worshipful Mr. David Hall Senior Grand Warden, and the Right Worshipful Mr. Hugh Lenox Junior Grand Warden, of a Provincial Grand Lodge, to be held at Philadelphia for the Province of Pennsylvania; granting to them and their Successors in Office duly elected and lawfully installed, with the Consent of the Members of the said Grand Lodge, full Power and Authority to grant Warrants and Dispensations for holding Lodges, to regulate all Matters appertaining to Masonry, to do and perform all and every other Act and Thing which could usually be done and performed by other Provincial Grand Lodges, as by the said above in part recited Grand Warrant, reference being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear.

And Whereas, the Right Worshipful William Adcock, Esq., Grand Master, the Right Worshipful Mr. Alexander Rutherford, Deputy Grand Master, the Right Worshipful Jonathan Bayard Smith, Esq., Senior Grand Warden, the Right Worshipful Mr. Joseph Dean, Junior Grand Warden, Legal Successors of the above named Grand Officers, as by the Grand Lodge Books may appear, together with the Officers and Representatives of a Number of Regular Lodges under their jurisdiction, duly appointed and especially authorized, as also by and with the Advice and Consent of several other Lodges by their Letters expressed, did, at a Grand Quarterly Communication, held in the Grand Lodge Room, in the City of Philadelphia, on the Twenty-fifth Day of September, A.C. One Thousand Seven hundred Eighty and Six, after mature and serious Deliberation, unanimously resolve,

"That it is improper the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania should remain any Longer under the Authority of any foreign Grand Lodge." And the said Grand Lodge did thereupon close Sine Die.

And Whereas, all the Grand Officers of the said late Provincial Grand Lodge, together with the Officers and Representatives of a Number of Lodges of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, did on the said Twenty-fifth Day of September, One Thousand, Seven Hundred Eighty and Six, meet in the Room of the late Provincial Grand Lodge, and according to the Powers and Authorities to them entrusted did form themselves into a Grand Convention of Masons, to deliberate on the proper Methods of forming a Grand Lodge totally independent from all foreign jurisdiction.

And Whereas, the said Grand Convention did then and there UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVE, That the Lodges under the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania aforesaid, lately held as a Provincial Grand Lodge under the Authority of the Grand Lodge of England, should and they then did form themselves into a Grand Lodge, to be called THE GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA AND MASONIC JURISDICTION THEREUNTO BELONGING TO BE HELD IN THE SAID CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, as by the Records and Proceedings of the said Convention remaining among the Archives of the Grand Lodge aforesaid may fully appear.

Now know ye, That WE THE GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA AND MA-

SONIC JURISDICTION THEREUNTO BELONGING, by Virtue of the Powers and Authorities vested in US by the said Grand Convention, DO hereby authorize and empower our trusty and well beloved Brethren William Bell, Master, John Myer, Senior Warden, and Thomas Wildbahn, Junior Warden, of a New Lodge, No. Sixty-two, to be held in the Borough of Reading, in the State of Pennsylvania, or within Five Miles of the same. AND WE DO FURTHER authorize and empower our said trusty and well beloved Brethren, William Bell, John Myer and Thomas Wildbahn, to admit and make Free Masons according to the most ancient and honorable Custom of the Royal Craft in all Ages and Nations throughout the known World and not contrary wise. AND WE DO FURTHER empower and appoint the said William Bell, John Myer and Thomas Wildbahn and their Successors to hear and determine all and singular Matters and Things relating to the Craft within the Jurisdiction of the said Lodge, No. 62.

And lastly, WE DO hereby authorize and empower our said trusty and well beloved Brethren William Bell, John Myer, and Thomas Wildbahn, to instal their Successors, being first duly elected and chosen, to whom they shall deliver this Warrant, and to invest them with all the Powers and Dignities to their Offices respectively belonging, and such Successors shall in like Manner from Time to Time instal their Successors, &c., &c., &c. Such Installation to be upon or near ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST'S DAY, during the Continuance of this Lodge forever. PROVIDED ALWAYS, that the said above named Brethren, and their Successors, pay due respect to this Right Worshipful Grand Lodge and the Ordinances thereof, otherwise this Warrant to be of no Force or Effect.

Given in open Grand Lodge under the Hands of our Right Worshipful Grand Officers and the Seal of our Grand Lodge, at Philadelphia, this Thirty-first Day of March—A.C. One Thousand, Seven Hundred and Ninety-four, and of Masonry Five thousand, seven hundred and ninety four.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. The stated meetings of this Lodge shall be held on the first Monday of every month, and the hour of meeting shall be seven o'clock in the evening.

SEC. 2. If the Lodge be specially convened in consequence of a dispensation, or at the instance of a brother to advance him, the expenses of such special meeting shall be paid by the person for whose benefit it is called, unless the Worshipful Master considers the meeting necessary for the dispatch of business.

SEC. 3. No other business shall be transacted at a special meeting except that business for which the meeting is specially called.

ARTICLE II.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. On the night appointed, the election of officers, as provided by Article XVII., Sec. 8 of the Ahiman Rezon, shall be the first business in order after the reading of the Minutes, Reports of Committees on Applications, balloting for and the initiation of candidates, and the reading of petitions, provided that said election shall not be held before eight o'clock.

SEC. 2. No member shall be entitled to vote or be eligible to any office until his dues shall have been paid in full to the time of the election, including the dues for that meeting, unless the same shall have been remitted by the Lodge.

SEC. 3. Before proceeding to the election, the Secretary shall read and present to the Worshipful Master a certified list of the members who are in arrears, whereupon the Worshipful Master shall announce that such members are not eligible to office, nor shall they be entitled to vote.

SEC. 4. No visitor shall be admitted on the night of election until after the election shall have been concluded and the result announced, except elective Officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania and a District Deputy Grand Master.

ARTICLE III.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Worshipful Master.

SECTION 1. In addition to the officers required by the Ahiman Rezon, the Worshipful Master shall appoint annually Senior and Junior Masters of Ceremonies, Pursuivant, two Stewards, Chaplain, and a Representative to the Masonic Home of Pennsylvania, all of whom shall be members of this Lodge except the Tyler.

The Worshipful Master shall appoint all standing and special committees unless otherwise provided for; and at the stated meeting preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day, annually, he shall appoint a committee of three members to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, Secretary, Trustees, and Charity Committee.

The Worshipful Master shall have the casting-vote on all questions upon which there may be an equal division of votes, except in the election of officers.

Treasurer.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer shall receive from the Secretary all moneys which may be paid to the Lodge from time to time. He shall keep an exact account of all moneys received and pay out the same upon orders drawn upon him by authority of the Lodge, signed by the Worshipful Master and countersigned by the Secretary. He shall have his books and vouchers ready for examination between the stated meeting in December and St. John the Evangelist's Day, and at any other time when called upon by the Worshipful Master. He shall give a bond in favor of the Trustees for the use of the Lodge in the penal sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, with at least two sufficient sureties conditioned for the due performance of his trust, which said bond shall be renewed annually and approved by the Lodge. For his services he shall receive an annual salary of Twenty-five Dollars and be exempt from the payment of dues.

Secretary.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge, and issue notices for all stated and special meetings to each member. The delivery of such notices shall be by mail unless otherwise ordered.

In the notice for a stated meeting he shall set forth the name, age, occupation, and residence of every applicant for initiation and membership, or for membership only, whose application is then pending.

In the notice for the stated meeting next preceding the annual election, he shall notify each member of the amount of his arrearages, including the dues to St. John's Day next succeeding such meeting, and said notice shall contain a printed copy of Section 3 of Article VI. of these By-Laws.

He shall keep correct accounts of dues and fees between the Lodge and each member respectively, and receive all moneys paid to the Lodge, which he shall pay over to the Treasurer forthwith and take his receipt for the same; and he shall also perform such services pertaining to his office as the Lodge shall direct.

He shall furnish in writing to the first named on each committee as soon as possible a list of the committee and a short abstract of the business to which his attention is directed, with the papers relating thereto, and the member first named shall be responsible for such papers, which he shall return with the report of the committee.

For his services he shall receive a salary of one hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly, and he shall be exempt from all dues.

Stewards.

SEC. 4. The Stewards shall receive instructions from the Worshipful Master, or from the Lodge by resolution, and they shall provide accordingly.

Tyler.

SEC. 5. The Tyler shall perform the regular duties of Tyler on the night of meeting, and shall deliver the notices for all meetings of the Lodge and of its officers and committees, unless otherwise provided; and shall also perform such other duties connected with his office as the Lodge may direct.

ARTICLE IV.

TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1. At the stated meeting next preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day, annually, there shall be elected three Trustees to serve for one year.

SEC. 2. All the investments of the Lodge shall be made in the name of the Trustees as "Trustees of Lodge No. 62, F. & A. M.," their successors and assigns, which investments shall be made in first lien mortgages (on real estate whose value is at least double the amount of the investment), public loans of the United States, State of Pennsylvania, the City of Reading, Masonic Hall of Reading, and the Masonic loans of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania; and they shall not alter, change, or dispose of any of said investments without the consent of the Lodge.

They shall have charge of said invesments, collect the income thereof and pay over the same to the Secretary at the stated meeting next after it shall have been collected, taking his receipt therefor.

They shall present a full report of their transactions, with a list of all investments, including a statement of their condition, to the Lodge on the evening of the stated meeting succeeding St. John's Day.

ARTICLE V.

APPLICATIONS.

SECTION 1. All petitions for initiation and membership shall be accompanied with Ten Dollars, which sum shall be considered as part of the fee; and all petitions for membership with a fee of Five Dollars. If the petition is withdrawn, or the candidate rejected, the money shall be refunded; but if the candidate be approved and he does not come forward within six months thereafter, it shall be forfeited to the Lodge.

SEC. 2. An applicant for initiation and membership, or for membership only, who has been rejected shall be immediately notified thereof in writing by the Secretary.

SEC. 3. On the rejection of an applicant for initiation and membership, no member or visitor shall disclose the name of any brother who may have opposed his admission, under the penalty; if a member, of expulsion, and if a visitor, of never being permitted to visit this Lodge again, or to become a member thereof. That none present may remain ignorant of this By-Law, the Worshipful Master shall cause it to be read immediately after such rejection.

ARTICLE VI.

FEES.

SECTION 1. The fees for conferring degrees shall be as follows:

For initiation and membership, . . . $50.00
For conferring the three degrees by dispensation; in addition to the expense of the dispensation, ... $50.00
For the admission of Brother Masons as follows:
For the admission of an Entered Apprentice Mason, ... $35.00
For the admission of a Fellow Craft Mason, $20.00
For the admission of a Master Mason, $5.00

These fees, subject to the provisions of Article IV., Section 1, shall in all cases be paid in advance.

SEC. 2. A brother who has resigned, or has been suspended or expelled from this Lodge, shall, before his readmission, pay the fee of Five Dollars and all arrearages of dues.

ARTICLE VII.

DUES.

SECTION 1. Every member, excepting as provided in Section 2, shall pay annually Two Dollars and Fifty Cents in addition to Grand Lodge dues, unless exempted by these By-Laws or a vote of the Lodge.

SEC. 2. Every member of this Lodge in good standing for ten consecutive years shall pay annually One Dollar in addition to Grand Lodge dues.

SEC. 3. A member in arrears on the night of the annual election in December for more than one year, and neglecting or refusing to pay the same after he has been summoned by action of the Lodge at the next preceding stated meeting to pay his arrears or show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment thereof, may be suspended from membership; Provided, That before any member be suspended it shall satisfactorily appear to the Lodge that he has in addition to the summons received due notice, as required by Article III., Section 3, Paragraph 3 of these By-Laws, or that the provisions of Article XVII., Section 41, page 55 of the Ahiman Rezon, have been fully complied with, or that it was impossible to serve him with the required notice.

ARTICLE VIII.

RESIGNATION.

SECTION 1. Any member wishing to resign from the Lodge shall present his resignation in writing at a stated meeting; at the next succeeding stated meeting, the resignation, subject to the provisions of Section 45, page 56, of the Ahiman Rezon, shall be accepted; Provided, That in case of emergency, of which the Lodge shall be the judge, the resignation (subject as aforesaid) may be accepted at the meeting when it is offered.

ARTICLE IX.

COMMITTEES.

Committee on Charity.

SECTION 1. The Committee on Charity shall consist of three members, one of whom shall be a Past Master, and they shall be appointed annually at the stated meeting next succeeding the annual election. All petitions for charity, after having been read in open Lodge, shall be referred to them. It shall be their duty to ascertain if the applicant or applicants be worthy, and if found worthy they may request the Worshipful Master to draw orders on the Treasurer, in each case not exceeding Twenty-five Dollars, as the necessity may require.

They shall present a report monthly to the Lodge, specifying the amount of the orders and to whom granted.

Committee on Accounts.

SEC. 2. The Committee on Accounts shall consist of three members, and they shall be appointed annually on the night of the election. They shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer, Secretary, Trustees, and Committee on Charity, and present their report at the next stated meeting.

Committee on Furniture.

SEC. 3. The Committee on Furniture shall consist of the Worshipful Master, Treasurer, and Secretary. It shall be their duty to take charge of the clothing, jewels, and other property of the Lodge, keep the same in repair, purchase new property when directed by the Lodge so to do, and present a written report at the stated meeting next succeeding the annual election, together with an inventory of all Lodge property.

ARTICLE X.

GRIEVANCES.

SECTION 1. Differences among members of the Lodge, suits at law, private jealousies and disagreements shall be discouraged.

If any member should exceed the bounds of morality, it shall be the duty of the Worshipful Master and Wardens to admonish and reprove him, and if their influence be not sufficient to restrain him, the Lodge shall take such measures as may be deemed necessary to remedy the evil.

ARTICLE XI.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. No addition, alteration, or amendment to these By-Laws shall be made unless a motion therefor be presented in writing, at a stated meeting, with the name of the mover and seconder. It shall then be read by the Secretary and lie over without debate until the next stated meeting, in the notices for which it shall be set forth that "An addition (or alteration or amendment, as the case may be) to the By-Laws will be considered and acted upon," and if it shall then be approved by a majority of the members present, it shall be adopted.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. When the Worshipful Master takes the chair and gives Masonic notice, the brethren shall be seated and observe strict order.

2. After the Lodge has been duly opened, the minutes of the last stated meeting shall be read, and also of any intervening meetings. The business of the Lodge shall then be conducted in the following order:

1. Reports of Committees.
2. Petitions addressed to the Lodge.
3. Balloting for members.
4. Initiation.
5. Miscellaneous business, as the Worshipful Master may direct.

3. In all motions, debates, etc., the rules usually practiced in legislative bodies shall be observed as near as possible.

4. The Worshipful Master shall be the judge of order and debate; but he shall discourage useless discussions.

5. Every brother in consideration of a question before the Lodge, shall stand up and address the Worshipful Master in a respectful manner. He shall speak only once on any subject, unless by way of explanation, until every member present shall have spoken, if he choose to avail himself of the privilege, when he shall be permitted to speak a second time by permission of the Worshipful Master. He shall not be permitted to say anything in a wanton manner which will have a tendency to wound or irritate the feelings of a brother.

6. After an opportunity has been afforded to all members for discussion, the Worshipful Master shall put the question to the Lodge, and it shall be determined by a majority of the members present. At the request of any three members, the question shall be decided by ballot.

7. A visiting brother (excepting an Elective Grand Lodge Officer) shall not be allowed to address the Lodge without obtaining permission from the Worshipful Master.

8. A member or visitor shall not retire from the Lodge without obtaining permission from the Worshipful Master.

9. These rules may be dispensed with by the Worshipful Master if he should deem it expedient so to do.

At a stated meeting of Lodge No. 62, F. and A. M., held January 2, 1893, the report of the Committee of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge was received and read, approving the foregoing By-Laws.

JOHN B. RENNINGER,
WESLEY HORNING,
MORTON L. MONTGOMERY,
Committee on By-Laws.

The foregoing is a true copy of the By-Laws of Lodge No. 62, F. and A. M., at this date, January 3, A.D. 1893, A.L. 5893.

Attest:

Secretary.

EXTRACTS

AND ABSTRACT OF

DECISIONS OF GRAND LODGE.

SUBORDINATE LODGES.

Every Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons in this jurisdiction shall work under a warrant from this Grand Lodge, and acknowledge its jurisdiction. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 45.

OFFICERS.

The Officers of the Lodge are, a Worshipful Master, a Senior and a Junior Warden, Treasurer, Secretary, two Deacons and Tyler, to which, for the better regulation of the Lodge, may be added a Chaplain, two Stewards, a Senior and Junior Master of Ceremonies, and a Pursuivant.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 46.

No officer shall enter upon his duties until he has been regularly installed. The old officers shall continue in office until their successors are duly qualified.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 46.

In case of the death of the Master and Wardens, or their removal from this jurisdiction, or in default of an election at the time prescribed therefor, or for special reasons, the Grand Master may, by dispensation, permit a special election to fill the vacancies until the next annual election.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 47.

No brother can be elected Master of a Lodge who has not been elected and served as Warden of a Lodge in this jurisdiction, except in extraordinary cases, or at the formation of a new Lodge, when no Past Warden who is willing and qualified to act as Master is to be found among the members. In such cases, three Master Masons may be constituted Master and Wardens.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 47.

ELECTION.

At the stated meeting of the Lodge next preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day, in every year, the Master, Wardens, Treasurer, Secretary, and Grand Lodge Representative shall be elected by ballot. The election shall be conducted according to the rules regulating the election of Grand Officers. The Master and Wardens are, if practicable, to be duly installed on or before such St. John the Evangelist's Day.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 46.

The elective Grand Officers shall be chosen annually by ballot at the quarterly communication next preceding St. John the Evangelist's Day. A majority of the whole number of votes given shall be necessary for a choice. But if on the first ballot no choice be made, a second shall be had. If, on the second ballot, there be no election, a third ballot shall be had, confined to the two highest, or when such instances occur, to the one who has a plurality, and the other two or more the next highest on the return who shall have an equal number of votes. If on the third ballot no choice be made, the balloting shall be continued until one of the candidates shall receive a majority of all the votes given.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 14.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF LODGES.

A Lodge must assemble for labor at least once in every month, except that the Stated Meetings in the months of July and August may be omitted by vote of the Lodge. The hour for meeting shall be fixed by the By-Laws of the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 47.

The stated place of meeting of a Lodge is commonly inserted in its warrant, but should circumstances at any time render such a place of meeting improper, the Master may convene the Lodge at some other place, if within the limits named in the warrant. But no Lodge can be removed without the Master's knowledge, nor any motion made for that purpose, unless he be present. When a motion is made to change the stated place of meeting of the Lodge, and is seconded by two members, a summons shall be issued to every member, stating the proposition for removal, and assigning a time for hearing and determining upon it; such summons to be issued at least ten days before the hearing; and upon such special call, no other business than that designated shall be entered upon. A vote of two-thirds of the members present, and the approval of the Grand Master, or the District Deputy Grand Master, shall be necessary to authorize such removal; if decided in favor of removal, immediate notice shall be given to the Grand Secretary of the place to which the Lodge has been removed. The minority may appeal from the vote of the Lodge, directing such removal, and a hearing shall be given to both parties in the Grand Lodge before such removal be confirmed and registered.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 47.

Elections, and all other business and work, shall be done in a Master Mason's Lodge, excepting only such business or work as shall strictly belong to the lower degrees.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 48.

Every Lodge shall have power to frame By-Laws for its own government, provided they be not inconsistent with the general regulations of the Grand Lodge. The By-Laws of every Subordinate Lodge shall be submitted for the revision of the Grand Lodge, and when approved, a copy must be deposited in its archives. Such By-Laws shall be delivered by the Grand Secretary to the Committee on By-Laws, and by it are reported to the Grand Lodge for its approbation, and until approved are not valid.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 48.

A committee shall be appointed once in every year to audit and report on the accounts of the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 48.

Every Subordinate Lodge is required, on or before St. John the Evangelist's Day, in every year, to transmit to the Grand Secretary a list of its initiations, passings, raisings, admissions, deaths, rejections, suspensions, and expulsions, with the reasons for such suspensions or expulsions, also a list of suspended and expelled members restored by the Lodge or the Grand Lodge, together with a return of the election of officers, to the Grand Communication next following such election.

Every Lodge within this jurisdiction failing to make such return on or before the first Wednesday of March, shall be notified thereof by the Grand Secretary, and if such returns be not received by him within three months from the date of the notice, the warrant of the defaulting Lodge is, ipso facto, suspended.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 48.

Warrants of all Lodges suspended for delinquency as to returns, are revived on the receipt of such returns.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 49.

Any Lodge in arrears with the Grand Lodge for two years' dues (each year ending at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge), shall be notified thereof by the Grand Secretary, and if all arrearages due the Grand Lodge be not paid in full within six months from the date of such notice, its warrant shall be suspended, and unless cause be shown to the contrary, at the next quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge, it shall be vacated. During the suspension or sequestration of the warrant of a Lodge, neither its officers, members, nor its representatives can sit in the Grand Lodge, nor visit any Subordinate Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 49.

A Lodge may be dissolved:

1. By neglecting to make its returns in due time.
2. By neglecting to pay its dues.
3. By not assembling during twelve months.
4. By the death or resignation of its members.
5. By unmasonic conduct, and the resumption of its warrant by the Grand Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 49.

The Grand Master may on application and notice, sequestrate the warrant of a Lodge for violation of the landmarks, or for such act or acts of insubordination as tend to destroy the peace and harmony, or imperil the charater of the craft. But the warrant of a Lodge cannot be forfeited until it has been duly warned of its offence, and has been summoned by the Grand Secretary to answer the charge made against it.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 50.

When a Lodge is dissolved, it is the duty of the last Treasurer and Secretary, within three months after its dissolution, to surrender to the Grand Secretary the warrant, books, papers, jewels, furniture, and funds of such Lodge; and the last presiding officer is to transmit to the Grand Secretary an inventory thereof, and be responsible for the execution of this article. No brother of such Lodge shall be admitted into any other Lodge, nor entitled to the benefits of Masonry, until he has paid all arrears due from him to such Lodge, to the Grand Secretary, or has had the same remitted by the Grand Lodge, and obtained a certificate thereof, which he must present with his application for membership to the Lodge to which he applies therefor, provided that this shall not apply to the members of any Lodge which may be dissolved for unmasonic conduct; in those cases the brother must be restored by a vote of the Grand Lodge before he can obtain any such certificate.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 50.

A Lodge not distinguished by a name or a title, being desirous of obtaining either, must produce its charter to the Grand Master, who will direct the Grand Secretary to indorse on the charter the name or title selected, and certify the same under his hand and the seal of the Grand Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

Every Subordinate Lodge shall have a Masonic seal, to be affixed to its certificates and other documents proper for publication. An impression from such seal shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, and due notice given him of any change in such seal, with an impression from the substitute.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

No Lodge or brother is permitted to print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, the whole or any part of the proceedings of any Lodge. Nor shall any brother publish any work or discourse relative to Masonry without previously obtaining the consent of the Grand Master.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

A Lodge certificate shall not be granted to a brother unless he was initiated therein, or has been admitted a member thereof. Such certificate must be signed by the Master, Wardens, and Secretary, and have the seal of the Lodge affixed; the brother to whom it is granted shall subscribe his name at full length in the margin thereof.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

No Lodge, nor officer, nor member of a Lodge, shall be permitted to grant a certificate or recommendation to enable any Mason to proceed from Lodge to Lodge as a pauper, or in an itinerant manner to apply to Lodges for relief.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

One Lodge cannot delegate to another the advancement of any initiated Mason; nor can any Lodge advance any but its own members.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

The fees for initiation and admission to membership are such as each Lodge ordains for itself, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 51.

MASTER.

It is the duty of the Master to enforce the observance of the By-Laws of his Lodge, and of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Lodge; to see that his Wardens discharge their duties faithfully; that true and exact minutes be made of all Lodge proceedings; that the Treasurer keeps and renders true and just accounts at the stated times, according to the By-Laws and orders of the Lodge; and that the property and funds of the Lodge be justly managed and dispensed.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 52.

It is also his duty, and that of his Wardens, to attend all Communications of the Grand Lodge. He is empowered to call meetings of his own Lodge at pleasure. He has charge of the warrant of constitution, which must always be in the Lodge when it is opened, and during its labors. To him belongs the appointment of all the officers of the Lodge not elective.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 52.

Where there is no warrant, there can be no Lodge opened. The Master being absent, shall give the warrant to the Senior Warden, and in his absence to the Junior Warden; and if all are absent, no Lodge can be opened except by the Grand Master, or some one specially authorized by him for that purpose.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 52.

WARDENS.

Master Masons only can be Wardens of a Lodge. In the absence of the Master, the Wardens, according to rank, shall supply his place until his return, or until the next stated election.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 53.

The duty of the Wardens in the Lodge is to assist the Master in conducting its labors. When the Lodge is called off it is under the government of the Junior Warden, who remains in his station. He may permit any brother to retire, but he cannot admit any brother into the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 53.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall keep an exact account of all moneys received, and pay the same, on orders drawn upon him by the authority of the Lodge, which shall be signed by the Master, and countersigned by the Secretary. He shall keep regular entries of his receipts and expenditures, and have his books and vouchers ready for examination, at such periods as the By-Laws require, or whenever called upon by order of the Master of the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 53.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall keep a record of all the transactions of the Lodge proper to be committed to writing, that they may be submitted to the Master or a committee of his Lodge, and to the Grand Lodge, whenever required. He shall preserve a copy of the By-Laws of his Lodge, and of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Lodge, a list of the members of the Lodge, with the dates of their initiation or admission. He shall make a record of all the deaths, expulsions, suspensions, or rejections, and resignations in the Lodge, and those communicated by the Grand Lodge, transmitting the name or names of the former forthwith to the Grand Secretary.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 53.

He shall, on or immediately before the 15th day of November in each year, forward to the Grand Secretary a correct list of all the members of the Lodge who are also members of the Grand Lodge. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 54.

He shall issue the notices for all meetings, make his returns in time and form required by the Grand Lodge, and perform such other duties as may appertain to his office, or be required by the Ahiman Rezon. He shall perform any act as Secretary which the Master or the Lodge may direct in aid of the business of the Lodge, or concerning the same. He shall keep a book in which is to be recorded the place of residence of each member of the Lodge, and the place of residence given by each member to the Secretary, and so recorded, shall be the best evidence of the residence of said member; and in case of any change of residence of one who is also a member of the Grand Lodge, shall communicate the same to the Grand Secretary.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 54.

OTHER OFFICERS.

The duties of the remaining officers of the Lodge are analogous to those of the corresponding officers in the Grand Lodge, as far as the same apply to Subordinate Lodges.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 54.

MEMBERS.

A member of a Subordinate Lodge, when he signs the roll of members of said Lodge on his initiation, shall also add the place of his residence. When any member of a Lodge changes his residence, he shall, within one month thereafter, notify the Secretary of the Lodge of which he is a member. When a member is to be notified by his Lodge that he is liable to suspension for non-payment of dues, the Secretary shall, one month before final action, send notice to the place of residence last reported by said member to him; and if the said member had removed from the place of residence last reported by him to the Secretary two months before the date of the meeting at which he was suspended, it shall be no cause of complaint that he did not receive notice of the proposed action of the Lodge. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 55.

A candidate shall not receive more than one degree on the same day, nor a subsequent degree at a less interval than one month from his reception of a former degree, without dispensation from the Grand Master. But it is recommended to all Lodges to require proof of a brother's proficiency in the craft, by examination in the Lodge, before he be advanced.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 55.

Masons made by dispensation are not thereby members of the Lodge in which they are made. To become members they must apply by petition, and be duly elected.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

Not more than five brethren can be made in a Lodge on the same day, nor any one under the age of twenty-one years, unless by dispensation from the Grand Master.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

A member of a Lodge ceases to be such by expulsion, suspension, or resignation. But no member shall be permitted to withdraw from membership until his dues have been paid or remitted by his Lodge, or pending an inquiry in which his character may be implicated.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

No brother shall use his certificate, nor expose any Masonic emblem as a sign in his business transactions.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

If a brother by his behavior shall disturb the harmony of the Lodge, he is to be thrice formally admonished by the Master; and if he persists in his irregular conduct, he may be punished according to the By-Laws of his Lodge; or the Master may direct him to leave the room, and see that this direction is enforced before continuing the business of the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

No Lodge can expel or suspend a brother at an extra meeting.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

A brother who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, may, on the payment of the same, be restored to good Masonic standing by a majority vote of the Lodge; and if he is then desirous of joining the Lodge from which he was suspended, or any other Lodge, he must apply by petition, and be recommended by two Master Masons, members of the Lodge; which petition shall be referred to a committee of three Master Masons, neither of whom are recommenders, and at a subsequent stated meeting, the committee having unanimously reported in favor of the petition, a ballot shall be had, and if receiving a unanimous vote, he shall be declared elected. Provided, however, that a brother who has been suspended as aforesaid, may on the payment of his dues and all arrearages be restored, within one year from the date of his suspension, to membership by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any stated meeting of the Lodge, after one month's notice to the members.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 56.

A brother who has been expelled or suspended from a Lodge for any other cause than for non-payment of dues, and is desirous of being restored. must apply at a stated meeting to the Lodge of which he was last a member, when, if a majority of the Lodge shall so decide, the Lodge shall request the Grand Lodge to remove the expulsion or suspension; which being removed, the brother may apply for membership in the same manner, and subject to the rules and regulations governing the proceedings in cases of application for initiation and membership.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 57.

APPLICATION FOR INITIATION AND MEMBERSHIP.

The requisite qualifications for initiation and membership in a Lodge are, that the applicant be of good report, free born, of mature age, hale and sound, be able to gain a livelihood for himself and family, and to perform the work of a member in a Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 57.

He must apply for admission by petition, to be presented at a stated meeting of the Lodge. He must be recommended by two Master Masons, members of the Lodge. His petition must be in writing, or partly written and partly printed. He must sign the petition with his full name, and the two recommenders must also sign it. His petition must set forth his age, occupation, and residence, and that he has not applied to, and been rejected by, any regular Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, and that he believes in the existence of a Supreme Being.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 58.

This application, on its presentation to the Lodge by the Secretary, must be read, and referred to a Committee of Inquiry, consisting of three Master Masons, members of the Lodge, none of whom shall be of the recommenders. The committee shall make diligent and careful inquiry as to all matters which pertain to the character of the applicant.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 58.

The application being presented at one stated meeting, action by the Lodge can be had at the next or some subsequent stated meeting, not exceeding four months thereafter, if a favorable report be made, provided one month shall have elapsed since the meeting at which the application was presented. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 58.

The committee, or some one of its number, shall wait on the applicant, read to him his application, and inquire whether he subscribes to all the conditions thereof. A favorable report must be signed by all the members of the committee. If one or more of the committee report unfavorably, it is a rejection.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 58.

If the report is favorable, and being read to the Lodge, the Master shall order that a ballot be taken on the application, and one black ball shall reject the applicant. Every member of the Lodge present, unless excused by the Master, shall vote on this ballot, that unanimity before initiation may be ascertained. If by the ballot the applicant is rejected, a test ballot may be had by order of the Master, if he is satisfied error or mistake has occurred; provided especially that no member has left the Lodge-room after the first ballot was had, and before the test ballot is taken; and provided it is stated as the reason for said test ballot, that it is believed the result of the first ballot was by error or mistake.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 59.

If the applicant, being balloted for and approved, does not present himself to the Lodge within six months thereafter, all proceedings in his case are void. The application cannot be withdrawn from the Lodge until a favorable report shall have been made, and then only by a majority vote of all the members present.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 59.

In case of a rejection upon a ballot, a second ballot upon the application may be had, provided that the motion therefor shall be made at a stated meeting held within six months after the rejection —such motion shall lie over until the next, or some subsequent stated meeting, not exceeding three months thereafter, and if the motion be adopted, the second ballot must be had at the next stated meeting after the adoption of the resolution, notice thereof being given to the members. If the applicant is rejected, the Secretary shall, under the seal of the Lodge, forthwith send notice of the fact of rejection, with the name, age, occupation, and residence of the applicant, to the Grand Secretary.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 59.

If the report of the committee be favorable, and the ballot approves the petition, the candidate may receive the first degree in Freemasonry; subject, however, to objection from any member of the Lodge until initiation. Such objection shall have no more force or effect than rejection by ballot, and shall be governed by the same rules and regulations as are herein provided for a rejection by ballot, in Sections 67 and 68 of the Ahiman Rezon. If no objection is made, and the degree is completed, any objection to further advancement must be made in the nature of a charge against the brother, and must be tried in a Lodge of Entered Apprentice Masons. If the charge is found on trial to be sustained, the Lodge cannot advance the brother, and he must remain an Entered Apprentice not under the tongue of good Masonic report, unless he is on said trial expelled, or suspended, then he ceases to be a member, but may apply as in cases of rejected Masons, as herein provided.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 60.

When an application is received by a Lodge other than that which is nearest to the place of residence of an applicant, the Lodge receiving such petition for initiation and membership shall, under its seal, inquire of a Lodge nearest the place of residence of the applicant, whether it has any Masonic objection to the Lodge to which the petition is addressed acting on the petition. The inquiry shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Lodge, and shall contain the full name of the applicant. his age, occupation, and residence, as set out in his petition. The Lodge so inquired of shall cause said inquiry to be read at the next stated meeting thereof, af er such inquiry is received by the Secretary. A ballot shall thereupon be had on the inquiry, "Is there a Masonic objection to Lodge ——— acting on the petition of ———?" And a single black ball shall establish the fact of the existence of such objection, and the result of such ballot shall be certified by the Master and Secretary, under the seal of the Lodge, to the Lodge making the inquiry.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 60.

The Lodge receiving the petition shall not act thereon until it has received notice from the Secretary or Master of the Lodge inquired of, that said inquiry has been received by them or either of them, and that the same will be laid before the Lodge at its next stated meeting, giving the date of the next meeting. If after that meeting a reasonable time has elapsed (not less than two weeks), and the Master does not reply to the inquiry, or cause the action of the Lodge to be made known to the Lodge inquiring, by addressing the reply to the Secretary or Master of the Lodge inquiring, and causing it to be sent by a suitable conveyance, either through the post-office or by the hand of a brother Master Mason, he being informed of the character of the reply he is intrusted to deliver, the Lodge receiving such petition may, at its next stated meeting after the expiration of two weeks from the date of the stated meeting of the Lodge inquired of, proceed on the petition. A full record to be made of these proceedings by the Secretary of each Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 61.

The Lodge inquired of shall direct its Secretary to communicate the inquiry to the Grand Secretary, and also the proceedings of the Lodge on the inquiry.

In cases as above described, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Lodge receiving the petition of the applicant, to inquire of the Grand Secretary if there is any record in his office in regard to the applicant, giving his full name, age, occupation, and residence, as set out in his petition; and stating he does not reside near the Lodge to which he has sent his petition. A Lodge cannot act on any application for initiation and membership until it receives a reply from the Grand Secretary.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 61.

The fact that an applicant does not reside nearest to the Lodge to which he applies, is no disqualification for initiation and membership therein; but if an applicant so applies, and the Lodge inquired of replies that there is a Masonic objection, the applicant cannot withdraw his petition until the Lodge receiving it acts on the reply received from the Lodge inquired of; and if the Lodge so inquired of states under its seal that Masonic objection exists, such reply being put on the minutes of the Lodge to which the petitioner has applied, is equal to an objection, which stops all proceedings of said Lodge, and the applicant is left to the same course as a rejected applicant, as herein provided for; provided that in all such proceedings the Lodge first inquired of in the case has due notice, as herein prescribed in cases of inquiry.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 62.

If an application is made for membership only to a Lodge, the applicant must present a certificate under the seal of the Lodge of which he was last a member, with his dimit therefrom, or satisfactory evidence that he was in good Masonic standing, and that he is not a member of any Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 62.

The right of each member to vote by ballot is vested in him; for the exercise of this right he can never be questioned, either by the Lodge, a member, or any other Masonic authority. It is the exercise of a right which belongs to each individual member of a Lodge to cast a ballot as the conscience and Masonic light of such member commands. But it should never be exercised to gratify personal malice, spite, revenge, or any private animosity, or unkindness, or for personal objection of one member, which is individual only to the applicant, and does not affect his character as a member of society. The black ball is to protect the Lodge, the craft, and the fair fame of the fraternity of Freemasons, and on such grounds it is a duty to cast a black ball, if the members so voting believe that the initiation and membership of the applicant would bring reproach on the fraternity, by reason of the unfitness of such applicant to become a Freemason. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 62.

REJECTED APPLICANTS.

When a person applying for initiation and membership in a Lodge is rejected, the Secretary shall record on the minutes of the Lodge the name, age, occupation, and residence of such applicant, and the fact of his rejection, and communicate the same, under seal of the Lodge, to the Grand Secretary.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 63.

After the expiration of six months from the date of his rejection, the rejected applicant may make a second application for initiation and membership in the Lodge that rejected him; which petition shall be received, subject to each and every rule of action by the Lodge as in the case of a first petition. If the applicant is again rejected, the same course shall be followed by the Secretary as in the case of the first petition and rejection; stating in addition, on the notice to the Grand Secretary, "second rejection."—Ahiman Rezon, p. 63.

After the expiration of one year from such second rejection, the applicant may petition the same Lodge in writing, stating therein that he understands he has been twice rejected therein, and asking the Lodge to permit him to make a third petition to it for initiation and membership. On receipt of this petition, the Lodge shall order the same to lie over for one month, and notice shall be given to all the members that at the next stated meeting the Lodge will act on said petition. At the next stated meeting the Master shall direct the Secretary to read the petition; and when the same is read, the Master shall direct a ballot to be taken on a resolution then offered to grant the applicant the privilege of presenting a third petition. If the ballot on the resolution is unanimous, the applicant may make a third petition, subject to the same rules in all respects as apply to a first petition for initiation and membership. If the applicant is again rejected, this rejection ends all action by the Lodge in the case.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 64.

PUBLIC CEREMONY AND MASONIC DRESS.

A Lodge cannot participate in any public ceremony, unless it so participates as a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons. If it appears as a Lodge, the officers must wear their appropriate regalia, and the members with Lodge aprons, white gloves, full suit of black clothes, and black silk hats, which is the Masonic dress. A Lodge cannot so appear in public without the permission of the Grand Master first had and obtained, on a statement made by the Master of the purpose of such public parade. —Ahiman Rezon, p. 65.

When a Lodge is called out to attend the funeral of a member, it shall have precedence of all other associations and societies. The funeral ceremonies for a deceased brother as established by the Grand Lodge, are to be found under the title of "Public Ceremonies."—Ahiman Rezon, p. 65.

VISITORS.

Visitors unknown to the Master may be admitted into Subordinate Lodges, upon the voucher of some brother present that he has Masonic knowledge that the visitor is a Master Mason, or after examination by a committee of the Lodge, provided no member objects. Visitors known to the Master, may, at all times, be admitted by him.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 66.

A brother who is not a member of a Lodge, shall not be permitted to visit any Lodge under this jurisdiction more than once, except by permission of the Lodge.—Ahiman Rezon, p. 66.

REGALIA AND JEWELS.

See pp. 220 and 221, Ahiman Rezon, under title "Decisions."

ABSTRACT OF DECISIONS OF GRAND LODGE.

A Lodge has the right to summons for the purpose of installation or any purpose vitally affecting its interests or the interest of a member.—P. 217, Ahiman Rezon.

A ballot not required on a dispensation.—P. 219, Ahiman Rezon.

The W. M. has the right to refuse admission to a visiting brother, if such admission would mar the harmony of the Lodge.—P. 223, Ahiman Rezon.

The fee for initiation is not to be divided and made payable by instalments.—P. 224, Ahiman Rezon.

By-Laws and amendments to By-Laws must be submitted to the Grand Lodge, and be approved by them before they have force or effect.—P. 228 and 231, Ahiman Rezon.

A person rejected in another jurisdiction becoming a permanent resident in this jurisdiction, may in some cases petition for initiation and membership, notwithstanding his former rejection.—P. 233 and 234, Ahiman Rezon.

A vote of suspension can only be reconsidered at the same session.—P. 234, Ahiman Rezon.

Visiting "clandestine bodies" to be punished.—P. 234, Ahiman Rezon.

A Lodge cannot confer any of the degrees on the members of another Lodge.—P. 51 and 240, Ahiman Rezon.

A W. M. not only has the right, but it is his duty to refuse to submit to the Lodge for its action a proposed By-Law in violation of the Ahiman Rezon.—P. 244, Ahiman Rezon.
